

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF RACE, POLITICS
AND CULTURE
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Artist-in-Residence

JADE SIMMONS

BLACK.FEMALE.CLASSICAL PIANIST.

Discussion, Performance & Lunch

Tuesday, December 1, 2009

12:00-1:30 pm

Fulton Recital Hall

1010 East 59th Street (Goodspeed Hall, 4th floor; enter from inside the quadrangles)

A frank and humorous discussion about the state of race and the dangers of elitism in classical music, interwoven with personal stories from Jade's childhood and present day life as one of only a handful of Black classical concert pianists.

RSVP required for FREE LUNCH to jessicas@uchicago.edu by 11/24

Co-sponsors: Department of Music, University Symphony
Orchestra, University of Chicago Arts Council, EthNoise!
The Ethnomusicology Workshop

Ms. Simmons is a guest soloist with the University Symphony Orchestra on Saturday, December 5, 8:00 pm at Mandel Hall. Information: (773) 702-8069

Persons with disabilities who need an accommodation in order to participate should contact Jessica Sparks at 773.702.8063 or jessicas@uchicago.edu