

CSRPC

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF
RACE, POLITICS AND CULTURE
 AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

The Black Panther Party in Retrospect

90 years after the murders of Fred Hampton & Mark Clark

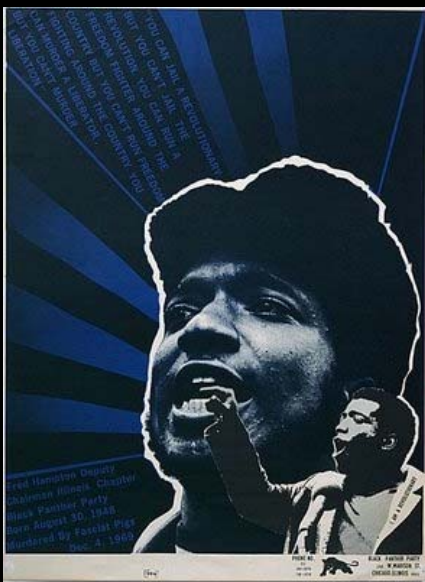

Wednesday, December 2nd, 3:00pm-8:00pm

International House Assembly Hall

1414 East 59th Street

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

3:00-4:30 pm—Film Screening

- The Murder of Fred Hampton
 Directed by Mike Gray & Howard Alk

4:30-6:00pm—Panel I

- Willie Calvin, IL Chapter BPP member
- Lynn French, IL Chapter BPP member
- Jeffrey Haas, author of The Assassination of Fred Hampton: How the FBI and Chicago Police Murdered a Black Panther
- Akua Njeri, IL Chapter BPP member; Chairperson, December 4th Committee
- Tracye A. Matthews, (moderator) Associate Director of CSRPC

6:15pm-7:45pm—Panel 2

- Emory Douglas, Minister of Culture for the Black Panther Party
- Ahmad Rahman, author of The Regime Change of Kwame Nkrumah; Associate Professor of History at University of Michigan-Dearborn, Detroit BPP member & former political prisoner
- Jane Rhodes, author of Framing the Black Panthers: The Spectacular Rise of a Black Power Icon; Professor and Chair of American Studies at Macalester College

Sunday, December 6th, 2:00pm-5:00pm—Exhibit Opening

- Power to the People: The Revolutionary Art of Emory Douglas
 Opening reception with the artist
 Exhibit at DOVA Temporary (5228 South Harper Avenue)
 Co-sponsored by Diasporal Rhythms

Co-sponsors: International House Global Voices Lecture Series, Black Panther Party Illinois History Project, NFP, Seminary Coop Bookstores, DOVA Temporary Gallery (Department of Visual Arts), Department of History, Organization of Black Students, Diasporal Rhythms

Persons with disabilities who need special accommodations in order to participate should contact Jessica Sparks at 773.702.8063 or jessicas@uchicago.edu.